

Any action which reduces Indiana's privacy act should not be adopted since Indiana's law has worked very well. Since its enactment we experienced a sharp reduction of intrusive and unwanted solicitations. Action by the FCC to reduce Indiana's privacy act would be an excess of regulation on the national level.